DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Species III, fig. 15, claims 4-8, 10-12 and 17-21 in the reply filed on 6/19/07 is acknowledged. However claims 17, 18 and 21 also have been withdrawn as non-elected invention because they depend from non-elected invention claims 1, 2 and 9.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the self-closing mechanism, the spring loaded cam, the counter, claims 10-12 and 19-21, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 10-12 and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention, for example, how are a self-closing mechanism, a spring loaded cam, and a counter connected to make and/or use the invention; and what are structural features required by them.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rebne (6,702,155). Rebne discloses, in fig. 2, a valve unit having limitations substantially as claimed and including one-way valve.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frydenberge (3,388,839) or Magsausay et al. (GB 2025379) in view of Zander et al. (3,211,340).

Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. discloses a valve unit comprising limitations substantially as claimed, except Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. does not disclose the valve unit and including one-way valve associated with a first passage.

Zander et al. teach a meter valve unit including one-way valve 47, 48 associated with a first passage.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the valve unit of Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. including one-way valve associated with a first passage, as taught by Zander et al., in order to prevent the flowable substance retracting back to the container.

Art Unit: 3754

9. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frydenberge (3,388,839) or Magsausay et al. (GB 2025379).

Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. discloses a valve unit comprising limitations substantially as claimed, except Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. does not disclose the valve unit having the second passage having flexible walls.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made to make the movable member in the Frydenberge or Magsausay et al. from flexible material so that the control member easily movable in the second passage in some degree as a matter of design choice.

It has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 6-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
